

May 1, 2010

'Springtime in Ohio' Craft Show
Hancock County Fairgrounds

1017 Sandusky Street, Findlay, Ohio 45840

“Springtime in Ohio,” The Old Mill Stream Craft Show, now in its 22nd year, highlights over 300 quality exhibits from seven plus states. The show has proven to be a success and enjoyed by customers from as far away as New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Canada. Attendees will once again be treated to great food, musical entertainment, demonstrations, outstanding craft and art displays, as well as fun activities for children. These are just some of the highlights of Cloud Productions shows of distinction.

Bring the whole family, as there will be something for everyone. You can even make this the perfect weekend get away for the girls or your significant other! Your favorite shopping shoes are a must!. You can visit 11 buildings and 2 big top tents and many outdoor locations. The show will be filled with extraordinary crafts such as Folk Art, Americana, Victorian, Contemporary and Primitive Arts and Crafts. A great day to shop for that perfect Mother’s or Father’s Day gift, baby shower, wedding or graduation gift. Maybe freshen up your front door with a new spring wreath or add some color to your front yard with a piece of garden art!.

Children can ride their favorite pony and be entertained by Buttons the Clown, or even get their face painted. “Restaurant Row” offers a wide variety of food to please any taste.

The show hours are 10am to 5pm Saturday rain, snow or shine! Admission is $5 per person with unlimited re-entry with our visible hand stamp. Parking and children under 12 are free. Don’t forget to go to the coupons page and print your $1off coupon today!

